

*To create an innovative design
for a small house that is affordable, sustainable, and energy efficient.*

Sponsored by : Rice Design Alliance and American Institute of Architects, Houston Chapter

www.the99Khouse.com

PEOPLE

JURY

The following five jurors representing expertise in design, sustainability, construction of affordable housing, and Houston's Fifth Ward, will judge both Stage I and Stage II of the competition.

Michael Pyatok, FAIA

Principal, Pyatok Architects, Inc., Oakland, CA
www.pyatok.com

Bryan Bell, Jr.

Founder and Executive Director, Design Corps, Raleigh, NC
www.designcorps.org

David Lake, FAIA

Principal
Lake|Flato Architects, San Antonio, TX
www.lakeflato.com

Rocio Romero

Owner and Principal, Rocio Romero, LLC., Perryville, MO
www.rociromero.com

Richard Farias

Executive Director, Tejano Center, Houston, TX
www.tccc-ryss.org

SPONSORS

Rice Design Alliance (RDA)

www.rda.rice.edu

RDA is a 501 (c)(3) nonprofit organization dedicated to the advancement of architecture, urban design, and the built environment in the Houston region through educational programs, the publication of Cite: The Architecture + Design Review of Houston, and the promotion of physical improvements in the city. Membership is open to the general public. With over 2,000 members, RDA represents a wide professional constituency. RDA has a history of public service in design issues for Houston, a record of success in previous design competitions (Sesquicentennial Park, 1985, and Heart of the Park, 1992), and a journal, Cite, which has a wide circulation of those interested in the quality of Houston's built environment.

In conjunction with the competition, the RDA will present its fall lecture series, Design Activism: Agents of Change. For more information go to rda.rice.edu.

American Institute of Architects, Houston Chapter (AIA Houston)

www.aiahouston.org

AIA Houston is a 501 (c)(6) nonprofit professional organization with over 1,700 architects, urban designers, and affiliated firm members.

RDA and AIA Houston represent the most comprehensive and organized groups dealing with architecture and urban design issues in Houston. Both organizations have a successful track record of collaborating with other civic and private groups.

POTENTIAL BUILDING PARTNERS

A wide range of potential builders has shown interest in our program. They include a local community development corporation, building groups that utilize volunteer labor, and market developers interested in addressing the needs of the low-income buyer.

The 99K HOUSE COMPETITION COMMITTEE

CO-CHAIRS

Nonya Grenader, FAIA

President, Rice Design Alliance; Architect; and Professor in Practice and Associate Director, Rice Building Workshop, Rice University

Barrie Scardino

Executive Director, AIA Houston; architectural writer and preservationist

COMMITTEE

Brooks Howell, AIA

Office4Design and City of Houston, Houston Hope (LARA)

Jean Krchnak

Curator, Architecture Visual Resources University of Houston College of Architecture

Camilo Parra, AIA

Principal, Parra Design Group, Ltd., a Houston design-build firm

Patrick Peters, LEED AP

Director of the Graduate Design/Build Studio University of Houston Gerald D. Hines College of Architecture, Principal, Longoria/Peters

Danny Samuels, FAIA

Principal, Taft Architects, and Visiting and Professor and Director, Rice Building Workshop, Rice University School of Architecture

Linda Sylvan

Executive Director, RDA

Randall Walker, AIA

Executive Vice President, Kirksey and Past President, AIA Houston

COMPETITION STAFF

Kathryn Fosdick

Program Administrator, Rice Design Alliance

Mandy Loughman

Communications Director, AIA Houston

Nicole Laurent

Director, Architecture Center Houston

GRAPHIC DESIGN

Alan Krathaus

Principal, CORE Design Studio

Fiona McGettigan

Principal, CORE Design Studio